

Kent International Jamboree 2025

Volunteer Vacancy Pack

Role Title:

Reflective Zone and Charity Lead and Team Members

Reporting to:

Village Director

Role Description:

To recruit and then foster relationship links with major charities and NGOs who are willing to join us at KIJ25 and share their work/provide activities to our participants.

To create and run an engaging, well-themed area of the Village which will encourage participants to reflect upon the spiritual, social, moral, cultural and ecological impact of life on planet Earth and the responsibilities of each of us.

To be a part of a team which is enthusiastic, customer-focused and dedicated to delivering high-quality service and activities.

To take the responsibility for dressing the village site within a theme, as laid out by the Village Director and the KIJ25 Board.

Essential Requirements:

Solid grasp of and commitment to the spiritual, moral, social, emotional and healthy living policies of the Scouting/Guiding associations.

The ability to work within budgets and timescales and as a part of a team.

Willingness to attend regular planning and delivery meetings.

The tenacity and sensitivity to develop and foster relationships with other Charities and NGOs on behalf of the KIJ25 and by extension, the Scouting/Guiding Association.

Exceptional interpersonal and communication skills.

Nice to haves:

Previous management/team involvement in Jamboree delivery in the UK or abroad (Team Lead role).

Professional knowledge or experience of working in the charity sector, teaching or entertainment/services industries.

An eye for detail and theming, to produce consistent and coherent messaging.
